2011 Lodge Ordeal

This year's Lodge Ordeal is coming up fast. The 2011 Jaccos Towne Lodge Ordeal will be held at Camp Belzer from October 14-16th. This is the last opportunity for new Ordeal candidates to join the Order. Arrowmen can help the Lodge by encouraging those in their home troops and districts who have been elected but have not gone through the Ordeal to do so at this time. The Ordeal will also offer the chance for eligible members to seal their membership by obtaining Brotherhood.

There will also be Vigil Honor ceremonies.

Finally, at the close of the Ordeal will be new lodge officer elections* for next year and a Lodge Executive Committee Meeting. Come out and join your brothers in a weekend of fun, fellowship, and cheerful service!

*-Anyone wishing to run for a lodge office must complete the Lodge Officer Petition, available on the Forms page of the Lodge website.

Order of the Arrow Representatives

With all of these fun and exciting events coming up in the next few months, we will want to have a high attendance of Arrowman attending. We also want new Arrowman and in some cases, old, to get active within their Chapters. In order to do this we need Troop OA Representatives to spread the word of OA events and meetings within their troops.

If you are currently your Troop's OA Representative, send an E-mail with your name and troop number to ncarmstrong@indy.rr.com.

One of the many events that took place at the 2011 Indian Summer.

Lodge Chief's Talking Feather

Fellow Arrowmen,

I hope that everyone is doing well and had a great summer. First I would like to thank all Arrowmen who served on summer camp staff. You all provided a wonderful service to the council. One of the unique events of the summer was OA Indian Summer in North Carolina. Indian Summer was a full week of ceremony and dance training. Those of us who went had a wonderful time.

This year is promising to be full of excitement and fun. Quanasita Chapter is hosting Fall Fellowship at Camp Ransburg with a theme of movies, and I look forward to seeing all of the friendly competition between Chapters. But Fall Fellowship is not just competition and games. It is a time of friendship and fellowship as well. I hope to meet many new Arrowmen at Fall Fellowship. Also at Fall Fellowship are our Lodge officer elections. If any Arrowman is interested in running for a Lodge position feel free to talk to me at the LEC or Fall Fellowship.

Lastly, let us all welcome John Armstrong as the new Lodge Vice- Chief of Communications. John is a member of Quanasita Chapter, and I know that he will do a wonderful job.

Adam Aldrich

August 2011

Hello Arrowmen,

I hope everyone had a great summer. I had the opportunity to attend Indian Summer in North Carolina earlier this month. Our contingent consisted of 10 Arrowmen, 6 youth and 4 adult. We saw some great costumes, some very cool regalia and a whole lot of dancing at 4 pow wows! In addition, we had the chance to participate in numerous classes. These classes included arts and crafts, information on inductions, and assorted topics on how to improve our lodge. We interacted with lodges from across the nation. The opening and closing shows were spectacular! Our own Kenny Rusk carried a flag in the closing show!

Our lodge gave every adult leader at summer camp a stoneware mug thanking them for making a difference in the lives of scouts. The leaders liked the mugs.

I want to thank all the Arrowmen who helped with our OA service day at the Indiana State Fair. The Scout Legacy area was well received by the public. Our Scout Executive, Scott Clabaugh, stopped by and commended us for our service. Dan Cunningham from our State Fair Committee said that our Arrowmen helped make his job of securing the area at closing much easier. They definitely need us to participate next year.

As we rapidly approach our fall and winter events, I want us to try very hard to raise our attendance. Quanasita has been working hard on Fellowship at Ransburg. I think you will like our patch set for this year. Thanks to Joey Dierdorf for the design and to Tom James for chairing our patch committee.

I want to thank Dan Spall our Vigil Chief and his adviser Eric Wickizer for a very smooth Vigil process this year.

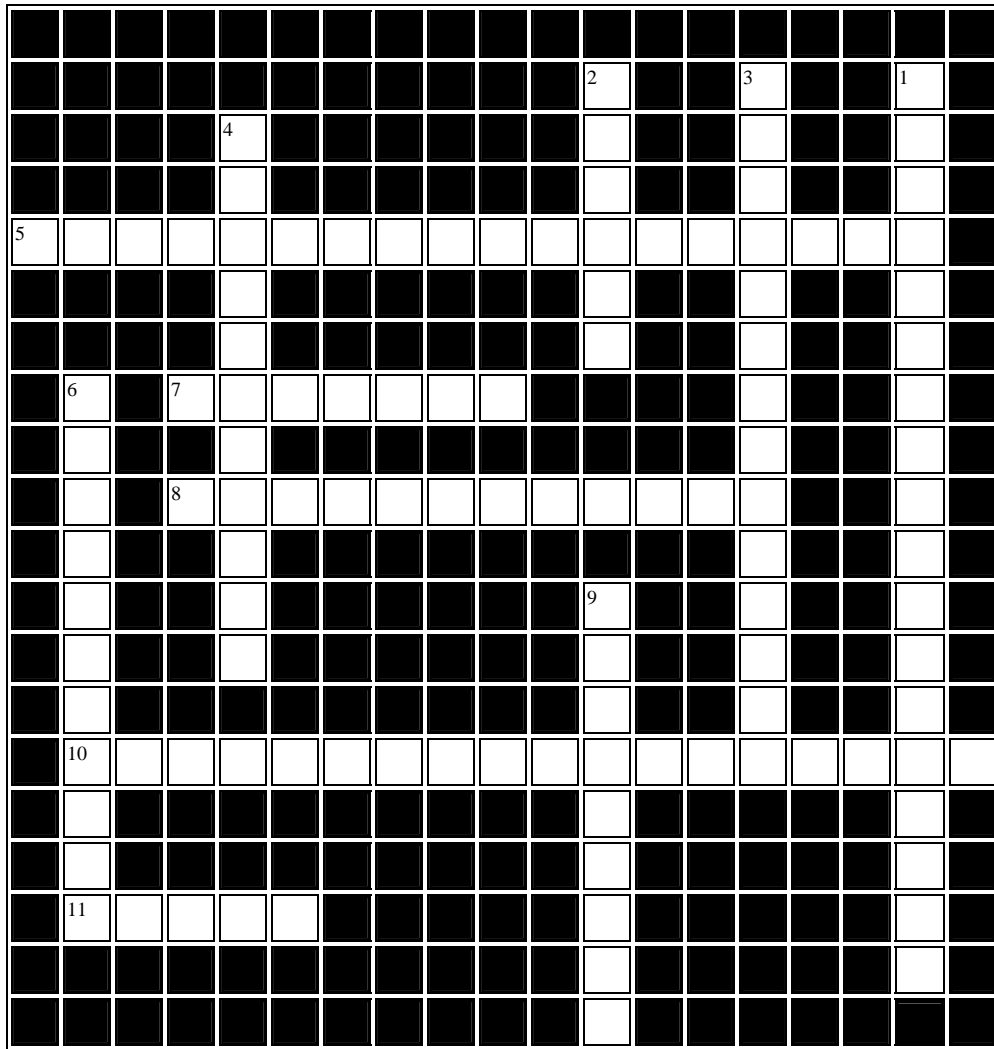

I will be looking to fill positions in adult leadership for 2012. Leadership for the new year will be announced at the winter banquet. If you are interested in helping on the lodge level, please talk to me soon.

Yours in the Wimachtendienk,

Steve James

OA Day of Service at the State Fair

The OA Day of Service at the fair was very successful this year. The many volunteers at the OA Day of Service at the Fair contributed almost one hundred hours of service to the council. The Arrowmen who volunteered provided service by spending time with the young children who came and participated in the different activities that were offered.

Coming in 2012 - OtterPass!

The Lodge will be offering a new reservation system for events in 2012. Called "Otter Pass," Arrowmen will be able to register for all Lodge events at the beginning of the year. Purchasing the this "fast pass" will give the Arrowmen all patches for the events plus a special "Otter Pass" patch, will simplify entry to events (just show your pass), and will include some priority treatment.

Watch the Lodge website for more information on OtterPass!
