Section Conclave Review

The first Conclave for Section C6A occurred April 17-19 at Camp Cary. This weekend was a great weekend for those from our lodge who attended. There were many activities and trainings, such as running an ordeal, patch trading 101, importance of ceremonies, and introduction to colleges. Our ceremony teams competed again this year (and performed very well). Finally, the weekend concluded with the election of the new section C6A officers. Conclave was a great event. Thanks to the C6A COC for all of your work in putting it together!

Lodge Ordeal Location Change

This year's Lodge Ordeal will not be held at Camp Bear Creek as previously advertized. The Ordeal will now be held at Camp Kikthawenund. The Ordeal will still be September 17-19, 2010.

New Section Officers Elected at Conclave

Every year conclave is concluded with the election of the Section Officers for the next year. This year two Jaccos Towne Arrowman have been elected to Section office. Section C6A will be led by our current Lodge Chief, Andrew B. In addition, Lodge Treasurer Dan G. has been elected to serve as the Secretary for our Section. Finally the new Section Vice Chief is Tyler G. from Woapink Lodge (IL) Lodge Vice Chief of Administration, Jordan S. will soon take over as our Lodge Chief.

Congratulations to all these Arrowman!

Lodge Chief's Talking Feather

Fellow Arrowmen,

I write this letter with some very exciting news. For those of you who could not attend the very first Section C6A Conclave, you truly missed a great weekend of training, games, Native American heritage, and fellowship. The experiences and memories that everyone gained and shared will be lasting with not only me but everyone who attended.

With Section Conclave come Section Officer Elections. I am honored to announce that the youth of our Section selected me to serve as the Section Chief for 2010-2011. With this being said, this will be the last time I address you as the Jaccos Towne Lodge Chief.

I have met many people in my time as a Lodge Officer. Since taking the role of Lodge Secretary in the summer of 2007, I have grown in many ways. I am forever grateful to have had the opportunity to have served the youth of our Lodge. The lessons I have learned are worth more than any sum of money, and the friends I have made along the way will be with me for a lifetime. As I look back on the great times I have had as your Lodge Chief, I can only wish for one thing in the future. My hope for the members of the Lodge is that you find a way to get involved. At times, it may seem like a lot of hard work, but the benefits that you can gain through any leadership position in the Order of the Arrow are great!

It has been an honor serving two terms as your Chief. I know that the Lodge leadership is going to have a smooth and easy transition when I officially resign as Lodge Chief to take on the full responsibilities as the C6A Section Chief. I look forward to seeing the new leaders of the Lodge grow and see the continuing success of our Lodge as new youth take charge.

Yours in the Brotherhood,
Andrew Bowman

Brother Arrowman,

I would like to congratulate Andrew on his election as Section Chief. He has done an outstanding job in leading our lodge, and I hope to uphold the same. I believe that with the leadership of our chapters and lodge that we can make the rest of this year more successful than ever.

I would like to remind everyone about our upcoming Ordeal season, and I know the chapters are doing a lot to prepare for the new incoming Arrowman. I highly encourage everyone to be an active role model and get involved with the Ordeals whether it is being a part of the Ordeal teams or just taking part in the service of the weekend. I am sure it is going to be an exciting Ordeal season.

It is hard to imagine that the summer camp season is almost here. I hope that everyone is signed up to attend summer camp this year. If you have not yet signed up, there is still time to do so! Also, closing out the summer season there is the 100th National Scout Jamboree at Fort A.P. Hill, VA. I would like to encourage any Arrowman who is not registered to go with the Council to sign up for the OA Service Corps because it is going to be such a fun and exciting event!

I wish everyone a fun-filled camping season and look forward to a great year of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service!

Jordan Sandoe

Ordeals

As the ordeal season approaches it is important for each Arrowman to remember what it is our Order is founded on - service to others. With that being said, what better way to unselfishly serve others than by assisting in a staff capacity at an ordeal. Arrowmen are highly encouraged to help out at an ordeal in some capacity. There is always a need for service leaders and Elangomats. Additionally, by serving, it shows the commitment of service, which every Arrowman makes, to those new members who are going through the ordeal.

2010 Dues

Are your 2010 OA Dues paid? If not, please fill in the form below and send it in with payment!

Brotherhood

With the beginning of the Ordeal season also comes a chance for those who are eligible, to seal their membership by obtaining the Brotherhood. The requirements for Brotherhood are simple: be a dues-paid Arrowman for at least 10 months; have a basic knowledge of the Ordeal (pass the Brotherhood test); write a letter to the Lodge saying how your service to Scouting has benefited from the OA and how you will continue to serve Scouting and the OA; and finally go through the Brotherhood Ceremony. Arrowmen who are eligible are strongly encouraged to go through the necessary steps to become Brotherhood and seal their membership as a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow.

Fall Fellowship Update

This fall, the Lodge will be hosting the annual Fall Fellowship but with a pirate twist. October 15-17 join the Lodge at Camp Kikthawenund for the "Tale of the White-Sashed Pirates." A registration flyer for this event will be available on the lodge website soon. As of this time the cost has not yet been set. Any questions about the event should be directed Pirate Chief, also known as Fall Fellowship Chair, Zac (Bacon) Coghill. Email Zac at Baconcoghill@hotmail.com. Finally there is another way that you can get information about Fall Fellowship, and that is by joining the Jaccos Towne Fall Fellowship 2010 Facebook group. If there are at least 100 members by June 1st, each member will be given bonus doubloons for the event. See the flyer on the next page and mark your calendars!

Bear Scholarship Recipients

Every year a select few new Arrowman from our Section are awarded the Bear Scholarship. This scholarship is intended to allow new Arrowman the chance to experience Conclave. This year Jaccos Towne had two recipients of the scholarship. They are Michael B. (Kickapoo) and Jordan E. (Lowaneu Allanque). In the picture below Michael is in the front wearing a red hat, and Jordan is on the right wearing a navy jacket. Congratulations to both of these Arrowman.

Advisor's Corner

Fellow Arrowmen,

When I sat down to write my first Advisor's corner for the newsletter, I was drawn back to my Ordeal weekend. I remember being nervous and slightly apprehensive. I did not know what to expect. As I sat there under the stars reflecting on the experience, I wondered where OA would take me. At that moment I did not see myself being a ceremonies adviser for my chapter, or attending two NOACs, and certainly not becoming the Lodge Advisor!

But, looking back, I see the journey I've made. I see the mentors and advisers that nurtured me while on the trail. I see the youth who helped develop me and for all this I am thankful. Now here I am, the mentor and adviser. It is a task I take seriously.

I hope you have the time to reflect and you find that your journey has been as rewarding as mine. It is time that we learn together and along the way I hope we laugh together and enjoy our membership in this great organization. Remember that "those that chose you, need you." Let me know if you are interested in getting more involved!

Yours in the Wimachtendienk,
Steve James

August 15th LEC Added

The Lodge Executive Committee has voted to hold a meeting during the month of August. This meeting will be in addition to the ones that are listed in the Lodge Plan Book. The meeting will be held August 15th at the new Indianapolis Scout Office. Any questions should be directed to the Lodge Chief or Advisor.
