SCOUTS IN HANCOCK,
HENRY, RUSH, FAYETTE, AND SHELBY COUNTIES.'

Seke Macque has had a wonderful 1999 so far. They have made many organizational changes including the development of a closing policy, creation of a quality OA troop award, creation of a troop chief program, which allows for increased communications and the expansion of our CEC.

The new officers have also began to pursue fund-raisers for our ceremonial teams. The chapter voted to hold their first ever Fall Ordeal on October 29-31 and is planning a Cub Fun Day on October 2.

According to its officers, Seke Macque is "looking forward to continuing [our] support of the lodge."

Feature Article: Section Conclave

The setting is perfect; this springtime atmosphere is conducive for fellowship. There are Native American events, sporting competitions, and action packed shows all within beautiful Camp Maumee overlooking Lake Tarzian.

In fact, it is the scene of this year's Section Conclave. So what is Conclave? Well, for starters, it is a chance to meet other OA members from across the state in a weekend of scouting. On the weekend of April 18-20, you will have the opportunity to share in the various activities hosted by all of the Lodges in the state of Indiana.

How can you sign up for Conclave? The cost will be $25 for youth, $30 for adults, which should be sent with the registration form to the following address:

The Results Are In

With inches upon inches of snow this past winter and the recent resignation of our 2nd term Lodge Chief, Bob Valentini, progress in the 1999 year has been slow in getting under way.

At the Lodge meeting held on Sunday, March 22, a new Chief, Drew Updike, was elected for the remainder of the 1999 year. This left the office of Lodge Secretary open. Another election was conducted, and David Scherer is the new Lodge Secretary. Both new officers are committed to improving our lodge during the next year.

From the Chief to all new Arrowmen:

The 1999 Section Conclave is right around the corner. For months now Lodges from across the state of Indiana have been pooling their time and resources to make this year's Conclave one of the best ever. I encourage all of you to come to Camp Maumee and see what Conclave is all about.

To all new members who came into the Order in the spring or fall of 1998, David Yoder, the Chief of our Section, is offering a $5 coupon towards the cost of registration which makes the fee $20 for youth and $25 for adults. This coupon can be found accompanying the registration form; so just send them in together. I hope that many of you will take advantage of this opportunity to build your sense of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow.
