Letter From the Chief:

Brothers,

We are embarking on a new and exciting year. I am asking you to join me as the Lodge moves forward. With all the new events taking place I think it promises to be a great year. As you will notice in the Section Conclave article, we will have Conclave at Rose-Hulman University this year. This is a first for our Section, and will set a precedent for many Conclaves to come. Also, we are into another NOAC year, with all the interesting events that happen there. NOAC will be closer this year than it was in 1998, continued

Section C4A Conclave: Are You Going?

This year Section Conclave will be held April 14-16 at Rose-Hulman University. Being at a University means a few things. It means all training will be held inside, in classrooms. It means food will be provided by the University dining services (it really is very good, I've tried it). It means all the sport events, like the basketball tournament, will be held inside the Sports Complex. It means all the shows will be in the Gym, so who cares if it is raining while we are watching videos with pyrotechnics. If you would like, you can even stay at a nearby hotel for $49.99 a night with a maximum of 4 in a room. The Section is all set to give one of the best Conclaves ever, so make sure you get your money in and go. It costs $25 for youth and $35 for adults, and there is a $5 discount if you are a new arrowmen. Be sure to get your money in though, because there is a $5 late fee for registrations after April 1. Fill out the registration form in the Goodlander and send it in to assure your spot. This is your chance to meet people in Order of the Arrow from all over the State, and participate in some of the best training and activities available. The theme is "Moooving into New Frontiers." and the events for the weekend are going to mirror this pretty well. Come on out and see how they do. We'll be looking for you.

NOAC is Coming, Make sure you reserve a spot!

NOAC. It holds the same meaning for many as National Jamboree. Something that other people might go to. Well, NOAC is very different. You stay in dorms. It is only $280 for the entire week, and it is all focused on OA. Like National Jamboree, it is the experience of a lifetime. NOAC this year is down in Tennessee, at the University of Tennessee in Nashville. It will be July 27 to August 3. The Lodge is allowed to take 16 youth and 7 adults, and that is all. If you are interested in going, you need to send in the registration with $100 to the Council Office. There is so much that happens, that it is hard to put it down in writing. There are the ceremonies, which take an entire continued on page on page 2 so please make use of this and come share your experiences with about 6800 other Arrowmen. This year our theme for our events is OA: Then and Now. Look for the theme in the Summer Fellowship and Fall Fellowship.

We are already about one-third of the way done with this year, so now is the time to start coming to events if you have not already. We have the Ordeals lined up for May, and Summer Fellowship for July. Come and share the Spirit of the Order with your brothers.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Seth Powell

Vigil Meeting, Coming Soon:

Just a reminder to all Chapters, the annual Vigil meeting will take place directly following the March Lodge Meeting. Make sure there is a Vigil member from your Chapter to attend. You must also bring all the forms filled out and give them to Adam at the beginning of the Lodge meeting. There is a new form this year, so if there are any questions please call the Vigil Chairman, Adam Scott at (765) 495-1572.

Ceremonial Training, Worth the Trip:

Ceremonial Training this year was at Belzer on March 4. There were a limited number of participants, but this did not faze the trainers. The sessions were excellent, and the discussions lively. Chris Shocklee was in charge, as the Committee Chair for the Ceremonies Committee. We recommend you attend next year for information not only on Ceremonies and competitions, but on Ordeals in 2 day because there are so many teams. The dancing competitions are also an entire day by the time they can get through all the different types. There is a small COPE type event, and the trading post is wonderful. You can pick up anything there, but only if you show up early enough. They sell out in just a day or two on some of the items. So, you are saying, you want to go, but don't think you can make the deadline to go with the Lodge? Go on staff! If you are interested in going down early and helping with the events, or on shows, or any other part of the week, let Seth Powell know at (765) 288-1946 so that you can get the application. Even if we are only allowed 21 people from our Lodge to go, let us know if you are interested. We will try to get you in somehow.

Have you paid your Dues for 2000?

Sam Locke is the new Membership Chair, and is working diligently to keep the records up to date. If you are wondering about the state of your membership, check with your Chapter Chief. He should have a list of the current membership. Dues are still $7.00 a year or $25 for five years.
