

T Order of the Arrow Wulakamike Lodge 21 he Goodlander

Dear Brothers,

Scouting's National Honor Society - that's who we are now. As part of the National Order of the Arrow, our role has been expanded, enhanced. We are not merely experienced campers of those who give service cheerfully; we are those who lead the way, set the example and wear the reputation of scouting on our uniforms. We represent those who are trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent. When someone inquires us about scouting, we are scouting. As brothers in this Order, it is us who aid in making scouting what it is. It is as someone once said, "I am only one, but I am still one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something which I can do."

Yours in the Brotherhood of Cheerful Service,
Drew Updike

Fellowship grows

By Drew Updike
Chief

Each fall, our Lodge holds many exciting events and opportunities in a weekend of fun and fellowship. This year's 1999 Fall Fellowship was held September 26-28 at Camp Ransburg overlooking beautiful Monroe Reservoir.

"The sun always brings a good day," said Steve Chatot.

The weather was clear and sunny making it easy to be cheerful during any of the day's varied activities.

According to Kyle Dewees of the Wapakamekunk Chapter, it was "the most fun I've had with pants on."

Well, be that as it may, even though there was no fire at the Saturday night campfire due to the state fire ban, it was as lively as ever. The weekend's success was due not only to good planning, but also to the enthusiasm and responsiveness of those who attended.

New officers announced

By Drew Updike

Chief

In continuance with Lodge policy and tradition, the officers for next year, 2000, were elected on Saturday night at Fall Fellowship.

The candidates were introduced by nominations at lunch which were followed by speeches and the elections, with the results as follows: Seth Powell, Lodge Chief; John Powell, Vice-Chief of Administration; Rick Crossland, Vice-Chief of Program; David Scherer, Secretary; and Tom Dickson, Lodge Treasurer.

The new officers will be inducted at the Winter Banquet in January. Thanks go out to this past year's officers and advisors, and the best of luck to next year's.

Arrowmen invited to leader training

By Adam Scott

Vice-Chief of Adm.

Help bring your chapter and our lodge into Y2K without the glitches the rest of the world is expecting! Join us at Belzer for the 1999 Lodge Leadership Training.

The purpose of this two day training weekend is to develop more experienced leaders within the Lodge that can bring all that they have learned back to their Chapters. It is an excellent opportunity that is open to any Arrowmen, and it would be favorable for each Chapter to bring at least three youth and two adults.

The training will be held at the Gyro Center at Camp Belzer. The session will take place from November 13-14, beginning at 8 a.m. on Saturday. The cost for the weekend is $10, and participants may camp at Belzer on Friday night if they so desire.

Any arrowmen who is interested in attending should acquire further information from their Chapter Chief. Any Chapter Chief who needs to register their Chapter should contact Adam Scott at 765-495-1572 or ajay42@purdue.edu.

National Chief shares thoughts

By Drew Updike

Chief

In Dallas, Texas, something special happens for the Order of the Arrow at the end of December, each year; a new Chief and Vice-Chief are elected from the 52 Section Chiefs of our National Brotherhood of Cheerful Service. In the past election, Will Parker of Montgomery, AL, was elected as Chief, and Andy Oh of McLean, VA, was elected as Vice Chief to lead our Order into the next Millennium. During the National Leadership Summit at Colorado State University, I found Parker taking a moment's rest while watching one of the feature bands perform at the Summit. Will is a former two term Section Chief and, if you have been part of the OA Trail Crew at Philmont, you might have had him as one of your Foremen. He is a sophomore at Davidson College majoring in Political Science and was generous enough to spare us a few moments to answer some questions.

G: What do you think are some of the positive aspects of this Summit which you have organized?

P: The people, the ideas.

G: What kind of music do you listen to?

P: I like a sorts of music, but only some country and no rap.

How is balancing your "life" and the Order?

P: It's difficult, but possible.

G: Is college fun?

P: Oh, it's a great time, but not too wild.

G: What are your plans in the near and distant future?

P: Right now, I just want to finish up school. Once I'm a graduated man, I want to teach in high school and them move into politics. As of yet, it is undecided where my public services are needed most.

G: Have you ever met the President?

P: Yes, in the Oval Office. Earlier this year, we presented President Bill Clinton and other public officials with the Boy Scouts of America Annual Report.

G: What special opportunities come along with being National Chief of America's greatest organization for youth?

P: National Chief is really cool. Last month, I was in South Africa at a conference representing the Boy Scouts of America.

G: How does it feel to be the elected leader of the 52 most powerful youth in scouting and address thousands of Arrowmen at the Summit?

P: It is truly amazing, but it is nothing compared to addressing all of the Lodge Chiefs at the summit. The lodge level is definitely where it's at!

The lodge is starting a list of members from the lodge, who have parts memorized for the various ceremonies, that are willing to help other Chapters with their ceremonies. Anyone wishing to become part of the Ceremonial Reserves please contact Chris Shockley 765-495-5792 or shocklee@purdue.edu.

We are still trying to get a cheaper price on hats. We are trying to have hats this year instead of a patch. Unfortunately, this raises the price slightly. However, the professional catering and the hats makes the price well worth it. We are looking at starting the banquet around 5:00 in the evening. However, this time is TENTATIVE.

The menu will be as follows: roast beef and honey ham, au gratin potatoes, green beans, buttered corn, creamy coleslaw and fried biscuits with apple butter.

Representatives to be appointed

By David Scherer
Secretary

This summer, a few members of our lodge went to the National Lodge Summit Meeting. While they were there, they learned many new and exciting things to introduce to the lodge.

One of the new things that will be introduced will be a new position that will include each troop, Chapter and lodge. The new position will be called the Team/

Troop Representative. This new position will hopefully help communication and ties with our conversion of troop to Chapter to lodge information. The biggest help of the program will be the planning of events, so that a troop and Chapter event will not be planned on the same weekend, so Arrowmen do not have to choose whether to go to the troop or Chapter event.
